Office getting in Washington

HOW TO GET IT AND HOW NOT TO DO IT—EXPERIENCE OF AN INDIANA CANDIDATE—CASH VS INFLUENCE

[Washington Correspondence of the New York Times]

Getting office in Washington under the present administration has been reduced to a science Those who undertake to learn that science do not look for tutors but find it somewhat expensive. It is emphatically one of the abstruct sciences the abstraction consisting of getting the applicant's money by the speediest process There was a time so long ago perhaps that I am not qualified to speak from experience thereof when if a man came here and recd for a position by his members his Senator and all the leading citizens of his locality with a tolerably fair showing for honesty, he stood some chance of succeeding without any other expense than the usual high price of a Washington board bill Times change, and men change with them and if principles do not change they are lost sight of Now a days a man with such an endorsement only furnishes evidence that he is a fit subject for plunder Let me take up this business seriatim and I shall not go an inch beyond the truth nor outside of facts within my own knowledge, to furnish a fair and literal showing of the modus operandi of getting an office at the present time and from the present administration

We will suppose, then, that a gentleman from the State of Indiana, for instance comes to Washington and presents an application for appointment as Collector of Internal Revenue for the —— District in his State which is vacant His papers are endorsed first by the leading business men of his district, without regard to politics second, by his Representative in Congress, who is a Republican the applicant though not a Radical being a supporter of Grant and Colfax third by one or both of his Senators He is happy in the thought that such an endorsement is certain to procure him the office, and so it ought but it isn't The application is laid before the President and by him referred to the Secretary of the Treasury Perhaps it receives the endorsement of the latter, and goes back to the President The candidate waits patiently for a week or two, goes to see the President as often as he dare, and the President promises that he shall have the position When he gets thus far he is happy for the second time—he has Andrew Johnson's promise —than which no utterances were ever breathed more treacherous and deceitful But he waits patient a few days longer until he gets thoroughly tired and disgusted and is just about to "know the reason why, when he is introduced" (accidentally, of course, to a gentleman who in all probability can aid him materially in the right direction Perhaps this gentleman is a member of the "Presidential household, and perhaps he isn't perhaps he is only a newspaper man or a claim agent, or an attorney (without practice) or an ex army officer, or a poor devil of some other sort, getting his living by political sweat cloth operations The applicant soon learns that his friend can secure the appointment for him with little or no delay, but he must have a retainer of five hundred dollars, and in case he is confirmed five hundred more After so much labor and expense the candidate is loth to abandon the effort The office is tolerably lucrative, and he concludes to "go in and fight it out on this line The friend with so much influence at the Presidential mansion goes to work and the office seeker soon rejoices by having his name sent to the Senate Now he is happy for the third time—and he blissfully fancies his troubles are over His name goes to the Finance Committee, and there it hangs It don't come back when he thinks it ought He forgets that a nomination by Mr Johnson is, with the Senate prima facie evidence against his political orthodoxy, and that work is required here as well as elsewhere; but he goes to work finally, only to find charges filed against him with the committee to the effect that he supported Mr Johnson in the Philadelphia Convention movement of 1866 He is just about to swear profanely at the vexatious and groundless charge when he meets another friend, in the corridors of the Capitol brass mounted with impudence but very influential with Senators He confers with him and learns that assistance is necessary at that end of the avenue as well as at the other, and the sum of $250 is agreed upon as compensation for assistance to be rendered in procuring a confirmation In a day or two the charge of political heterodoxy is withdrawn Therefore he is confirmed Now he is supremely happy At last he is through and can afford to be jolly So having made the acquaintance of a number of "friends," who eat and drink, well, he jubilantly invites them to Welcker's and spends another hundred in a festive lay out of terrapin champagne and cigars Just as soon as he gets his commission which will be right away, of course he proposes to shake the ashes of his political Sodom from his feet, and depart for his home But he don't get his commission "right away" He waits one, two or three days more impatiently than ever He goes to see the President and comes away without knowing just exactly whether the Secretary of the Treasury or the President or somebody else is at fault He waits two or three days more, and yet no commission He is now ripe for the third and last approach One of his "friends" whom he has made acquainted with the situation informs him that there is a "hitch" somewhere, but he can aid him and perhaps cause the commission to be issued at once Utterly in the dark as to where there can now be any "hitch, he complies with this last demand, because he is growing desperate determined to "get out of this" as soon as he can So he promises another "couple of hundred" the friend runs up to the White House and down comes the commission from the President through the Secretary of the Treasury, to the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, the same afternoon, as if such official celerity were the rule instead of the very rare exception The finally successful but greatly disgusted, official locks the precious document in his carpet bag, and starts for Indiana by the next train minus all his confidence in the integrity of the administration and about $1 000 in cash most of which has been bled from him by the horse leeches who live and flourish in the corrupt atmosphere of Andrew Johnson's official being

Let no one doubt the truth of what I have written Victims are too numerous The illustration is under rather than overdrawn I can furnish the names and dates, and figures, and facts of a score of just such cases, which have come to my knowledge within the past six months

A MIGHTY REVOLUTION.—In the year A D 1848 Taylor Cass, and Van Buren, were Presidential candidates The first named was Whig the second Democratic and the third Free Soil At that election 2 877 415 votes were cast of which Van Buren received 291 378 In 1852 four years after at which Scott (Whig) Pierce Democratic) and Hale (Free Soil) run showed a gain of 157 255 In 1856 four years after Buchanan (Democratic) Fillmore (Know Nothing) and Fremont (Republican) run The popular vote at that election was 4 019 818 and increased the vote of the Free Soiler's to 1 122 788 votes for freedom and the rights of man In 1860 when Lincoln (Republican), Douglas (Democrat) and Breckinridge (Rebel) run the popular vote was 4 700,193, and the majority for freedom was 524,2888 Thus from year to year has the doctrine for the enslaved gained ground in our Commonwealth It is no wonder that the Democracy tremble at the voice of the sons of freedom In the State of Louisiana in 1848 at the Presidential election, there was 33,588 votes cast and only one vote was cast in the interests of freedom and to day we find in that State, by a majority of voters thereof, a freedman occupying the second office in the State What a mighty revolution in so short a time in favor of the rights of man! From one vote in 48, it now amounts to a majority Revolutions never go backwards, it is said and the truthfulness of the adage is not lost in this case

A correspondent informs the Baltimore Gazette that James Green of Missouri is the name of the former United States Senator who a paragraph in the papers a few days since stated had been picked up in the street in New Orleans in a ... and destitute condition and taken to the Charity Hospital At one time he was the most formidable opponent of Stephen A Douglas in the Senate

Mrs Perry known as the "Washington woman" claims to have been the means of blocking Smythe's confirmation to Austria

A Talk with Thaddeus Stevens

A correspondent of the N Y Tribune details a conversation with Thaddeus Stevens some weeks before his death He says

Dropping politics and the impeachment question we came to speak of the course of the newspapers toward him and the vast amount of vituperation which had been poured on his head He remarked that he did not fret at that it was all he could expect for "you know he added that I have always been a plain speaker myself This led to my asking something in regard to his early life and his history As I used the word history he glanced at me quickly and I thought rather suspiciously and directly said "You newspaper men are always wanting to get at a man's history As I said to a young girl who came to see me some time ago to collect materials for a biography of me I have no history My life long regret is that I have lived so long and so uselessly

I ventured to suggest that his friends were not disposed to agree with him in the word "uselessly as applied to his Congressional achievements

I have achieved nothing in Congress Until the war began I was a plodder without influence and control over anybody Some of the papers call me the Leader of the House I only laugh at them yes but they never follow me or do as I want them until public opinion has sided with me

No he added after a pause of a moment or two I am not over proud of my Congressional career I like my State service better I think and feel I hope without vanity that the crowning utility of my life was the adoption of the Common School System of Pennsylvania

He explained that in 1835 an attempt was made by the Democracy for political purposes to repeal the School law passed during the previous session of the Legislature and they did succeed in repealing it in the Senate They would have succeeded in the House but for a strong speech and "a good deal of filibustering as Mr Stevens remarked on the part of himself and friends in the House, and Gov Ritter in the Executive mansion

"That is the work he said, resuming after his explanation that I take most pleasure in recalling except one perhaps I really think the greatest gratification of my life resulted from my ability to give my mother a farm of 250 acres and a dairy of 14 cows and an occasional bright gold piece which she loved to deposit in the contribution box of the Baptist Church which she attended This always gave her great pleasure and me much satisfaction My mother he suddenly added "was a very extraordinary woman and I have met very few like her My father —he hesitated a moment and several times commenced the sentence before pursuing it further it was evident he was trying to make a confession he did not like At length the innate love of the truth and plain speaking got the better of him and he continued

My father you see he said, was not a well to-do man and the support and education of the family depended on my mother She worked night and day to educate me I was feeble and lame in my youth, and as I couldn't work on the farm she concluded to give me an education I tried to repay her afterward but the debt of the child to his mother, you know, is one of the debts we can never pay Poor woman! the very thing I did to gratify her most hastened her death She was very proud of her dairy and fond of her cows and one night going out to look after them, she fell and injured herself so that she died soon after

I had heard the fact mentioned that Mr Stevens had on one occasion given $100 000 to the poor of Lancaster county and I asked him about the truth of it

Oh! it was not true he said I have never been able to do any such thing I have been a failure in everything I have failed financially three times The first was through going bail and security and it broke up a very fine practice I had in Adams county The second was through the carelessness of a partner in some iron mills Notes were presented to me for payment which I had never executed or known of I went to my partner and asked how it was He explained that he had been losing money for some time but as he had not the courage to tell me of the losses and had signed the firm name to notes without consulting me Well said I What's to be done? He began to make a piteous mouth but I cut him short I don't come to upbraid you I said 'I came to get at the facts I looked over the books and saw that we were deeply involved Then I said to him 'You take the works and pay all claims releasing me entirely' He declined, and I said, 'Then I will, and it was thus the iron works near Chambersburg came into my possession The third time I failed was when the rebels burned these works My friends in Lancaster and elsewhere raised about $100 000 which they tendered to me but I declined it and it went to the Poor Fund I managed to get through my trouble and have never taken advantage of a bankrupt law yet

He evidently had some feeling on this subject, and I asked him his views on the bankrupt law

Well he said personally I feel that my creditors are entitled, among my other worldly goods to my labor until I am dead If my debts are not paid, then the bankrupt law of another world will cancel them

DISCOVERY OF TIN IN COLORADO.—The Denver Tribune of August 15th says that Mr Wells Spicer writes as follows

We can take out seventy five per cent of pure tin We have done so at my laboratory and we have traced iron—coated iron with the metal thus taken out.

Mr H B Grose W B Hall and myself are the discoverers Mr Grose has for the last twenty five years been engaged as a tin dresser and inspector of ores at the Cornish mines in England He too has tested it by every test known there and assayed it He does not hesitate to pronounce it tin ore of the very richest kind—of the variety known in Cornwall as the Resin Tin Ore He says he never saw richer or more perfect ore raised in Cornwall

We have plenty of it The Spicer lode crops out for about three eighths of a mile and seems to be 100 feet wide—all of the same kind of ore we send you We are sinking a shaft as fast as possible but have not yet defined the crevice but are taking out slathers of ore

The Eureka lode is from eight to sixty feet in a defined crevice—all of this kind of ore

This I believe is the first oxyd of tin ore ever discovered in America The tin ore discovered in Missouri was sulphate of tin I believe I left you a specimen of it when I returned from the East I know I gave Mr Hollister a small piece

I am told that the Government has offered a large bounty to the discoverer of this kind of ore If such be the case luck is with us We need it I send you two specimens and will soon send you a box of tin—Colorado tin This will open up a new source of wealth and industry for Colorado There is no doubt of the extent of these lodes nor their richness and more will soon be recorded

THE PARAGUAYAN WAR.—People wonder why the Allies and Lopez do not compromise and stop fighting some time The difficulty lies here President Lopez of Paraguay has [illegible] the Allies [illegible] Lopez [illegible] not be [illegible] war

The Democrats in Washington and Sunflower counties Mississippi ... [illegible] His name is Wm T Cantlash and he turns out to be a deserter from company K 32d United States colored infantry

Seymour's Disqualification

[From the Cincinnati Gazette Aug 20]

The leading national organ of the Democratic party has at last been forced to come out with an attempted defense of Governor Seymour from the charge of hereditary insanity This charge was first publicly made some months before the meeting of the New York Convention in the columns of the Gazette We did not print it without ample proof of its truth

Ordinarily a private grief of this kind is sacred from public comment. But when a great party comprising more than one-third of the voters of the nation, puts forward a man with such a taint in his blood for our highest office and puts behind him as his possible successor a wild revolutionist like Frank Blair the matter becomes one of the gravest public concern If this thing be true, the Democratic party is engaged in the effort to make General Frank Blair President, and should accept that responsibility

The long defense attempted in the New York World consists in an account of the various uncles and cousins of Governor Seymour who have not been insane A column of such matter brings the World to this lame conclusion

> The fair inference, the [illegible] from the history of the family is, that no [illegible] hereditary tendency exists and even if it be true that there have been one or two cases of insanity, it must have been superinduced by accidental causes, and not transmitted with the blood.

Now the facts in the matter are these.

1 Gov Seymour's father, Henry Seymour, shortly after the exposure of some of his malpractices as Canal Commissioner of New York, became subject to fits of mental aberration in one of which he committed suicide by blowing his brains out

2 Governor Seymour's brother fell a victim to the same terrible malady, and [illegible] died a maniac suicide

3 Governor Seymour himself has been constantly warned by his family and physicians to avoid all harrassing mental cares and excitement, as most inevitably tending to develop the same taint in his own blood. Once, after some heavy pecuniary losses, they took the precaution to remove him from political excitement in New York to the seclusion of Minnesota and kept him there [illegible] for several months in accordance with the suggestion of his physicians. His mind was believed then, by both the physicians and the family to be trembling on the balance

4 Governor Seymour has himself referred, as distinctly as could be expected, to the imminent peril in which as he well knows he is standing To Mr Harvey, a member of the Massachusetts delegation to the New York Convention he said significantly that his health (which the World takes care to pronounce perfect), was such that it would be most perilous for him to accept the nomination If his physical health [illegible], what could it be that made it perilous for him, but the danger of excitement at which his medical advisers were constantly pointing, with the admonition, "That way lies [illegible]" To the New York delegation he said, in one of his speeches at their caucuses, [illegible] know that it would be dangerous for [illegible] to enter upon such a life of strained [illegible] and anxiety as the canvass would open up. To the Convention itself he said, "I [illegible] become your candidate without [illegible] both the party and myself

These are facts of public notoriety. No New Yorker, during the Convention, [illegible] ed to deny Governor Seymour's danger from insanity Many of those in the [illegible] frankly admitted it to be an [illegible] to their presenting him as a candidate It was as freely talked about and as [illegible] recognized among the better [illegible] delegates, as the existence of Pendleton's greenback theory or Blair's letter He received the nomination, as is known, in an agony of conflicting emotions, and his first [illegible] was, "My God, what shall I do?"

These things have been freely talked about ever since Now at last, six weeks after the nomination, the leading paper of his party, when driven to notice the matter, can [illegible] hope that, "even if it be true that there have been one or two cases of insanity (in his family) it must have been superinduced by accidental causes and not transmitted with the blood That is all

If the Democratic party had not been so reckless as to drag this unhappy man into such a position we should have been the last to disturb his private calamity But this thing is no longer a private calamity. It is a public peril To elect the Democratic candidate is to stimulate fresh rebellion at the South, and to place at the head of [illegible] affairs a man whom such excitement [illegible] in his own fear in the belief of his [illegible] of his physicians, send to the [illegible] Asylum. It is to plunge the nation [illegible] whirlpools and give it a [illegible] pilot. Or rather to look straight to the [illegible], it is to make Gen Frank Blair President of the United States

This is not a matter to be salved over by pleas for the sanctity of family affairs. It is not a matter to be whittled down by [illegible] talk about the decencies of political [illegible] sion The indecency consists in forcing such a peril upon the country, not in giving the country timely warning of it

Shall Frank Blair be President, [illegible] of Gen Grant? That is the practical q[uestion]

Captain Isaiah Rynders a conspicuous Tammany Hall politician in a recent Seymour and Blair speech in New York city, said: "He loved the American flag dearly as any other man so long as it represented a government in the hands of the Democratic party, and no longer

Frank Blair is the first candidate for a national office who ever went out of his way to personally abuse his opponent.

Where the Danger Lies

The constitutions of the restored Southern States are every way as liberal as those under which the people of Vermont New York or Oregon live All the machinery of government has been put in operation in those States, their members have been admitted into the respective Houses of Congress and their restoration is therefore every way perfect Yet the platform adopted at New York in July declares that the work thus perfected and recognized by the political department of the Government, shall not stand Who will reverse this decision of Congress, and how can it be done?

It was once held that the acquisition of new territory by the Government was unconstitutional. This was the Democratic view, and it was supported by a no less distinguished person than Mr Jefferson He admitted that he had no constitutional power to purchase Louisiana but held that under the circumstances the purchase should nevertheless be made Suppose now that in conformity with this view it could be proved that Louisiana, Florida or California had never been legally acquired, and were therefore not constitutionally admitted—could any Congress take this into consideration and revoke the decision of the former Congress by which these States were received as members of the Union? Such a thing would be impossible The act of Congress when it accepts a State organization as a member of the Union, and admits it to representation, is final And the right of a people so organized, to representation and to the support of the Federal Government cannot afterwards be questioned—unless by rebellion or subversion of their organization, they destroy that right. From these principles it is clear that a future Congress would have no more right to exclude the Senators and Representatives from any restored Southern State than it would have to turn out those from New Hampshire or New York. The proceeding in either case would be equally arbitrary and lawless.

Moreover, even in the event of a Democratic triumph in the Presidential election, the Senate will be an impregnable barrier to to such action by Congress The Senate will be Republican by a large majority, beyond all question, for at least four years longer. If [illegible] reconstruction is overthrown it must therefore be by some other agency than Congressional action. The Democracy's candidate for Vice President says it shall be done by violence He [illegible] by a revolutionary stroke to [illegible] the reconstructed State governments out of [illegible]. Is it conceivable that this could be done without producing great commotion throughout the country? The State governments, thus assailed, would resist and defend themselves. Herein lies the danger to the country from a Democratic triumph in the Presidential election, and it is a knowledge of these things which is causing all who want peace to support Grant and Colfax

African Democracy

It is curious to note the difference between the tone of the Democratic press of the North and that of a portion of the same party press at the South, on the negro question Just take the following from the Macon (Ga) Telegraph, a Democratic newspaper, and compare it with the current talk of the Democratic press of the North

> Hundreds of colored voters were in the Seymour and Blair procession, in Macon, last Wednesday night, and thousands more cheered it on with right good will The talk about "a conflict of races" is all stuff. The Democrats in this canvass are going to illustrate not a conflict, but a co-operation of races. We mean that somewhere between four fifths and nine-tenths of the Georgia negroes shall vote with us, and by our side, in this struggle; and we mean in this to do not the slightest violence to the negro's inclination He shall vote as he chooses, and he shall vote for his own best interests and happiness We notify all [illegible] and adventurers at home and [illegible] that we intend to try conclusions with them on this point, and help themselves if they can. The [illegible] vote of Georgia this fall shall be [illegible] a unit than it ever was before. The Radicals will get enough of "[illegible]hood suffrage" in Georgia to satisfy them for four years at least

So it appears that in Georgia the political millennium has arrived. White and black Democrats are there united in a loving, fraternal embrace. The best kind of Democratic authority pronounces the gloomy vaticinations of political prophets regarding a war of races "all stuff" The white and black Democracy of that State are "co-operating" The chivalry boast that the negroes and themselves will vote "side by side" in the coming election. Isn't the doctrine of "negro equality" [illegible] in the above paragraph? What is Southern Democracy coming to? If things go on at this rate a Southern Democrat, even a white Democrat,—will soon be [illegible] "as good as a nigger!" Now suppose the Democracy carry the Southern States by the aid of the negro vote and Seymour and Blair are thereby elected won't the orators of that party be loud in their encomiums of universal suffrage! And what will then become of the declarations so often made that the white men of the country will fight rather than submit to the rule of a President elected by negro votes

THE "ALBANY REGISTER"—The first number of this paper is at hand Care and judgment are exhibited both in its original and selected articles, and it presents a very good budget of local news The Register is thoroughly Republican in politics and supports Grant and Colfax Judging from the appearance of the first number, we have no doubt we shall find the paper one of the best of our Oregon exchanges Coll Van Cleve is its publisher

An old fashioned Democratic paper says "We only wish that every Radical had to sit side by side with a big buck negro for ten hours on a warm day in a close conveyance We think it [illegible] of their equality doctrine." We wish the Democrats would use some argument open to less objection Because, if equality depended on smell or rather the lack of it, some Democrats might be ruled out

Is it not the height of impudence for George H Pendleton to offer to pay the national debt in greenbacks after predicting as he did in 1862 that the entire issue of United States notes would become worthless in the hands of the holders?

Seymour, the New York candidate, says the South accepts the results of the war and Wade Hampton the maker of the New York platform, declares that he is ready to draw his sword again

What the Herald Says

The Herald of Thursday in boasting of the fact that its editor keeps a portrait of Lee, the rebel General hanging over his desk says We admire General Lee as a grand type of American character in its highest development a Christian gentleman without reproach, etc The [illegible] be fairly said of Seymour that "his character illustrates the highest type of American manhood an upright, conscientious Christian and so on So it appears that Lee and Seymour are exactly alike and it would make no difference which was elected President Some people have [illegible] about what constitutes the highest type of American character when they select for this description Lee and Seymour, one of whom is a perjurer and traitor and the other a fomentor of riots and an inciter of bloodshed Strange conduct for exemplary American citizens and conscientious Christian gentlemen!

The Herald inquires Why should we not honor Gen Lee? What has there been in his acts not worthy of honorable consideration There is no reason in the world why you should not honor him In turning traitor and fighting against the Government he was only carrying out the principles you have always contended for It is natural for you to think that his acts have been worthy of honorable consideration Honor him, by all means

The Herald has a paragraph of Frank Blair's farewell address to his troops delivered in 1865 in which he (Blair) advocates a partition of Southern lands among the veterans of the war, and the establishment of a "carpet bag" soldiery in the South to maintain peace among conquered rebels—heading its article on the subject with the inquiry "Is he fool or knave?" Say it yourself You've got him You've paid your money and can take your choice

The Herald says that "no man struggled harder to save the Union than Lee" It seems then, that the rebels whom Lee led who thought they were fighting for separation, were badly fooled. The Herald's discovery will compel every historian of the war, North and South to revise and amend his work

The Herald censures those who condemn the doctrine of secession as persons "whose bigotry tolerate no difference of opinion" So the issue between Union and Disunion was only a little difference which might as well have been tolerated That's what the "Democracy" thought during the war That's why they wanted to give up the contest.

The "Financial Policy"

Pendleton is travelling through the country making campaign speeches and assuring his hearers that the platform of their party means greenback payment and an unlimited greenback issue, while the great organ of Seymour and the Tammanyites the New York World, continues to argue that though the platform contemplates the payment of the public debt in greenbacks it does not countenance further issues, and means that no payment at all is to be made till greenbacks appreciate to par with gold As a platform susceptible of different interpretations in different parts of the country always was a Democratic necessity this one has been constructed so as to meet every possible requirement Pendleton says the bonds shall be paid by fresh issues of greenbacks and he declares that he would "expand the currency" to any amount that might be required to effect that object The World, on the other hand, under the immediate inspiration of Seymour declares that there shall be no further issues of greebbacks, and that the money to pay the debt shall be raised by taxation These diverse views represent the consistent and able financial policy which the Democracy have boasting that they were going to give to the country

The week before the Vermont election Pendleton was in New England He said he would go back to Ohio and report New England all alive for Seymour and Blair New England is certainly "all alive" but that is caused by the Yankees turning out so enthusiastically to Seymour and Blair's funeral Vermont leads the procession

The Democrat, "Brick" Pomeroy's new paper, just started in New York, heads its leading article of Saturday, "Lincoln in Hell!" That is just the sort of doctrine and way of talk that will suit Seymour's "friends," and "Brick" will soon be acknowledged as the organ of the New York Democracy

Henry A Wise in his Richmond ratification speech said "he did not care for the New York platform It had a lie in its first resolution It said secession was dead, that was not so secession was more alive than ever; He supported the nominees, and especially Blair, because he had declared that he would assume military power

The Democrats declare they can't recognize any right in our keeping the Southern States out of the Union During the war they couldn't recognise any right in keeping those States in the Union They never had any inclination to recognize anything but the "Confederacy"

Is it not the height of impudence for either branch of the Democratic party to complain of a national debt created and imposed upon the country by one portion of them taking up arms to destroy the Union, and the other portion encouraging them in the effort?

Seymour's support is derived almost wholly from those who favored secession or fought to overthrow the Government Grant is supported by almost every man who opposed the secession movement, and upheld the Union cause

Is it not the height of impudence for Wade Hampton, or any other paroled prisoner, to tell the people of the United States upon what terms they can have peace?

STATE ITEMS

The Register says oats are in demand at Albany at thirty cents per bushel

The Umatilla paper says that little is doing at that place in the line of trade

Sixty cents is the price offered for wheat at Albany, but there is little disposition to sell at that figure Most of the crop will be held for higher prices

A "railroad meeting" was held at Umatilla last week Another will be held on the 19th inst The object is to talk about securing connection with the Union Pacific

The list of premiums offered by the Linn County Agricultural Society is a liberal one, and the people are preparing with much interest for the Fair which will commence the 22d inst

Messrs Beach & Monteith, of Albany have received, of the new crop of wheat, at their mills something over sixteen thousand bushels J H Foster & Co, of the same place have received at their mill about twenty thousand bushels

ELEGANT DEMOCRATIC LITERATURE—The Frontier Index the Democratic organ published in Green River City, Wyoming thus commented on the news of the death of Thaddeus Stevens

> Glory to God in the highest, Death is victorious over the leader of the enemies of the white race Old Thad Stevens soul is dangling in Yellowstone Hell, side by side with John Brown's Thad's soul vamosed the ranch on the 21th inst at Washington city His carcass was escorted from Washington to Lancaster, Penn by the nigger Butler Zouaves Only four white men were in the nigger Butler Zouaves Only four white men were in the nigger stinking funeral train, and they were white only on the outside—whitewashed galvanized No sympathy is manifested and no person or party grieves over the impeacher's departure for negro heaven Thus ignominiously die the enemies of the white race

ROME, Sept 8—Count Sartiges presented his letters of recall to the Pope, yesterday and left for Paris

FLORENCE Sept 8—Minister Cadorı has resigned on account of ill health The duties are performed by Count Connor, in accordance with requirements

THE UNKINDEST CUT—The English journals no not appear to recognize the chief representative of the rebellion as though they expected his "lost cause" to revive under Democratic inspiration The arrival of Davis and family creates but little interest in the country from which he expected intervention The unkindest cut of all however must have been the innocent remark of a Liverpool journal that Mrs Davis has apparently a dash of the mulatto blood in her veins her sons and daughters also presenting similar peculiarities This seems to have been said in all sincerity and with a refreshing ignorance of the indignant manner in which it would be taken by the object of it The doctrine of superior and inferior races has not yet opened the dull eyes of Englishmen to distinguish the difference between sun tan and the color which has no rights that white men are bound to respect

AN IRISH SETTLEMENT UNANIMOUS FOR GRANT—The Philadelphia Press says

> Ten years since there came to Nebraska a party of one hundred Irishmen, all of whom without a dollar in the world They were worth only their spades and a Democratic vote apiece They took up land in Douglas county around the then unknown town of Omaha and now all of them are enjoying affluence and many of them wealth Now, with comfortable homes, and their cattle covering a hundred bluffs, a political as well as a social change has come over these American citizens of Celtic descent, and every one of them votes for Grant and Colfax So it goes all our country over Lift a man out of the gutter and you raise him from Democracy

AN EXTENSIVE ILLUSTRATIONS—The Virginia Enterprise is responsible for the following

> Our people have big ideas, and in expressing themselves they never use any little stunted similes A day or two since a man said in our hearing—in speaking of the ignorance of a man of his acquaintance with whom he was vexed—"Why he couldn't read the name of God if it was painted on the side of the Sierra Nevada Mountains in letters as big as Mount Davidson

The Mobile Tribune says We must break up the Loyal Leagues, and to do this it is only necessary that the negroes be properly instructed Point out to the negroes the way they should go Tell them that the carpet baggers in the Legislature are the veriest scum thrown up by the boiling cauldron of the late revolutionary war and they are a gang of political vagabonds on the prowl for plunder and they will surely aid you in driving the unprincipled wretches from the State

The Butte county (Cal) Press (Dem) says The majority of the Democratic party of this State is made of men who believe in the right of State interposition or in other words secession This is a cherished doctrine with them

Adah Isaacs Menken

A CARD FROM ONE OF HER HUSBANDS

To the Editor of the [illegible] Sir In your recent obituary notice of the late Adah Isaacs Menken I believe I can detect the hand of a writer who [illegible] his sense of duty as a public chronicler and a moralist may [illegible] still admit [illegible] unprejudiced [illegible] credit such extenuation of circumstance or error in a woman's career as an unprejudiced witness can offer and an impartial [illegible] to accept. Equally intelligent consciences differ widely as to the natural qualifications of womanhood for those occupations wherein the popular approval and support are challenged at the expense of private sanctity but there can scarcely be two opinions concerning the tendency of all social and moral education to either divert a woman from such presumed self sacrifice or turn the pitiless magnifying glass of ultra censoriousness upon her every defect, if inclination or destiny successfully tempts her to defy intolerant custom. The subject of your notice and this communication not only had her lot with imperious necessity, with those of her sex who so call upon themselves the conventional censure of inert morality but was also peculiarly misfitted, by her impulsive undisciplined nature, to exact even ordinary justice from her judges. Compelled while yet a child, to go upon the stage in New Orleans as an operatic danseuse that her widowed mother and helpless younger sister might be saved from want, she knew henceforth no other school, no kinder home than the theater, and gave to it an energy and unsuspecting aspiration which had brought fairer fruit if more sophistically directed. Soon separated from her family by the exigencies of a profession in which she rapidly arose to perilous success, and deprived of every influence by which the female character is guided and guarded to the pure and gentle royalty of home life, she grew into the wild volatile improvident creature of a life as unstable and inconsistent as the popular caprice which gives it motive. Taught only by her unschooled impulses to discriminate between wisdom and folly governed only by the uneducated dictates of a passionate intellect in the assertion of an individuality which knew not that it should seek any other justification than its own felt necessity she provoked a thousand scandals by her mere ignorance of the [illegible] forms of propriety, and was deemed an exception to all the possible good of her calling because she knew not how to identify herself with a respectable average of its evil. From this to an impetuous defiance of the misjudgment exaggerating her oddities into graver faults, was but a step, and then came a passionate, untutored spirit's spasmodic attraction to the first and falsest pretender of the immediate sympathy it craved. To expect the appearance of deliberate prudence or even common discretion, from a rank, untrained nature like hers, had been futile indeed; but too often the public voice accused her as a reckless trafficker in her own self-[illegible] when it should have [illegible] silent through pity for her as the victim of [illegible] wanton deception and heartless abuse by others.

"The present writer has no desire to mar the lesson of misguided talents and a womanhood soiled in the dust, yet would he, as having a sad and truthful knowledge of his subject, plead earnestly against a too harsh judgment of one in whose homeless and unfriended life there was much to claim the forbearance of every just man, and make every woman's uncharity for woman melt in a relenting tear.

I am, sir, yours truly, R H N.
New York, Aug 19th, 1868.

THE PROOF-SHEETS OF THE AUTHOR OF WAVERLEY.—To the Editor of the London Times Sir: Perhaps you may be able to honor with a [illegible] in your world-renowned columns the following statement of an interesting and curious [illegible].

If I were not the sole survivor of all connected with the publication of the novels and tales of Sir Walter Scott, I should think it strange that neither in the catalogue nor in the account of the sale published in the Times of the 11th inst of the manuscripts and proof sheets of the author of Waverly, at Christie's on Thursday last, is there any mention of a peculiarity which distinguishes the latter documents from all other proofs that ever were seen or sold. Not one of them ever went to press. Sir Walter Scott always had the proof sent to him in duplicate, writing his corrections on one copy and returning both to James Ballantyne, who transcribed them on the other proof, and that was the one sent to the press, so that the originals are as clean as when they came from Scott's hand. In this [illegible] these proofs are quite unique, and no wonder they were so carefully preserved by the late Robert Cadell. So scrupulous was the "Great Unknown" in keeping his [illegible], so that he would not permit even a single line in his own handwriting to be scrutinized by the prying eyes of the "Modern Athenians," many of whom, familiar with his autograph, frequented James Ballantyne's printing office.

For my competency as an authority on this matter I refer your readers to the 75th chapter of Lockhart's "Life of Scott."

I have the honor to be, sir, your most obedient [illegible],
GEORGE HUNTLEY GORDON

MILWAUKEE AND CHICAGO.—A Chicago man writes as follows from Milwaukee:

Your correspondent watched with much expectancy the appearance of Chicago's rival—Milwaukee. As the boat lay for a couple of hours at the landing, I went ashore, and inspected the ambitious claimant to the honor of being the metropolis of the Great Northwest.

Milwaukee is built of brick. There is one marble-fronted building. About one-half or less, of the population of Milwaukee, sat on the curbstone opposite this solitary marble front. With lorgnettes and eye-glasses they gazed admiringly at the astounding structure.

A citizen of Milwaukee showed me around. He first took me to the building with the marble front, and then led me around the block, and halted again before the palace with the marble front.

When the Milwaukee people are not commenting on the beauties of their gorgeous temple with the marble front, they are chuckling over the late wheat corner which they constructed for the benefit of Chicago.

Everything in Milwaukee is built of brick save the aforesaid resplendent marble front. It has been attempted, I understand, by some enthusiastic Milwaukeeans, to build tugs and propellors from these bricks. The thing does not appear feasible to any one, save a Milwaukeean, who believes the city a rival of Chicago.

GRANT'S COUNSEL. During the war of 1866 and 1867, while reconstruction measures were pending, Orr, of South Carolina, Brown and Walker of Georgia and other late prominent secessionists asked Grant's counsel. To all he replied, in substance:

Go to the Union Republicans in Congress and them alone. Have nothing to do with Northerners who opposed the war. They will never again be entrusted with power. The more you consort with them the more exacting the Republicans will be, and ought to be. When you get home, urge your people to accept negro suffrage. If you had promptly adopted the Constitutional Amendment abolishing slavery, or the one making negroes citizens and guaranteeing the public debt, Congress would undoubtedly have admitted you before this. Now it insists upon adding impartial suffrage. The sooner you accept that, the better for all concerned.

Democrats will see by the above that Grant has "political opinions."

ANOTHER ELECTION DODGE.—The great blowhouse of the Democratic party F P Blair Jr has written a letter to a prominent New York Fenian General pledging himself and Governor Seymour to the policy of declaring war on England if the Fenians as an organization, will work for their election. This makes a second war which Blair has pledged his party to. Blair is a promising trifler and consummate humbug.

The soldiers for Seymour," says the Napa Reporter. Yes, we mentioned that fact a day or two since. A disbanded rebel cavalry regiment in Mississippi recently reorganized as a Seymour and Blair Club.

PORTLAND, Og'n, July 28 1868

As there are a great many people sick and dying of a disease called Cholera Morbus I would call attention to the Chinese Doctor Jim. Having eaten green fruit I was taken very bad with the above disease and lay insensible for four hours, when Dr Jim was called and in 20 minutes after he gave me the first dose of medicine I was easy and asleep. I believe that there is no other doctor on the Pacific coast that could have relieved me as quick as Dr Jim. tf M M MORGAN

SELF-ACTING FIRE ENGINE!

THIS INVENTION HAS FOR ITS OBJECT THE extinguishing of Fires in a more instantaneous manner than has hitherto been discovered.

The advantages to be derived from the use of the EXTINGUISHER are as follows:

Every fire begins on a small scale, and its rapid and uncontrollable increase is owing to the fact that at the time of its commencement (when every moment's delay in checking it is of the utmost importance) no means are ready at hand.

The EXTINGUISHER is the only Engine that fills this requirement.

It is always ready for use, though standing unused for years.

It puts out Fire instantly.

It saves the great deluge of water now used for this purpose.

It is as effective in the hands of a Boy as the most experienced Fireman.

It is portable, and as easily handled as a bucket of water.

It possesses within itself the power of a force pump and as effective as a Steam Engine.

It is the only known invention that will put out Fires from Kerosene, Tar, Naphthaline, and combustible materials now in common use.

PACIFIC TURBINE WATER WHEEL.

THESE WHEELS EXCEL ANY OTHER WHEEL in use, and are no infringement on the Leffel American Turbine, but excel it in every particular.

CAUTION.

To all whom it may concern—One A. Myers is publishing and circulating a statement that my wheel is an infringement on the Leffel wheel and he will "prosecute said infringement to the utmost extent of the Law." His statements are not worth a denial. His game is Bluff which if he would only take the case to Court would soon be played out. Don't believe him!

I would be glad to get a case into the United States Court and get a decision. That would forever stop the mouth of Myers and his misrepresentations. The legal opinions of more reputable lawyers than Dodge & Munn and A. Myers have pronounced my patents no infringement on the American Turbine. H W SHIPLEY

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.
NEW REMEDIES. NEW REMEDIES

Dr Gibbon's Dispensary.

616 KEARNY STREET NEAR COMMERCIAL San Francisco. Established in 1854 for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases such as Gonorrhea Gleet Stricture Syphilis in all its forms Seminal Weakness Impotency etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons both male and female are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgence or from virus absorbed into the system. Look at their pallid emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken down constitutions disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents guardians friends attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrid life-destroying maladies—see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon a physician who has made private diseases his speciality for years and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted or both sexes who are interested in the welfare of their friends to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest a city in publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions the consequence of self abuse. This solitary vice or depraved sexual indulgence is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent producing with unerring certainty the following train of morbid symptoms unless combatted by scientific medical measures viz: sallow countenance dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots uneasiness about the loins weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers a dislike to form new acquaintances a disposition to shun society loss of memory, hectic flushes pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue fetid breath coughs consumption night sweats monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained should apply immediately either in person or by letter and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr G will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of those fearful maladies should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible and will give to each patient a written instrument binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon stating case symptoms length of time the disease has continued and have medicines promptly forwarded free from damage and curiosity to any part of the country with full and plain directions for use, for Ten Dollars sent in registered letter or through Wells Fargo & Co.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who with bogus sworn to certificates dupe the unwary. Some of the self styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places are tradesmen and became too lazy to work at their trades. Some are tinsmiths shoe makers newspaper carriers intelligence office keepers etc. Look over the San Francisco Directory and you will not find their Medical Institutes in it, but you will find their [illegible] occupations in it. Look at the Directory for 1862 and 1863. The only way to avoid imposition is to make enquiry—it will cost you nothing and may save you many regrets; for, as advertising physicians in eight cases out of ten, are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles certificates, pretended patient's letters etc. Dr Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 616 Kearny street, corner Commercial, San Francisco. Post Office Box 252.

REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 252 ON THE LETTER.

Consultations FREE.

Correspondents will please inform DR GIBBON that they read his advertisement in the Daily Oregonian.

HIRAM SMITH'S
Ophthalmic Panacea!

IS WITHOUT DOUBT THE MOST WONDERFUL EYE HEALER that has yet been discovered.

It CURES the most stubborn and hopeless cases of CHRONIC INFLAMMATIONS GRANULATED LIDS FILMS &c. as has been sufficiently demonstrated during the few months in which it has been brought into public notice. The proprietor is so fully convinced of its INFALLIBILITY that he WARRANTS A CURE OR REFUNDS THE MONEY. It can do the eyes no harm and a trial of it is therefore without injury or expense to the patient if a cure is not effected.

It has cured cases of FIVE, SIX, NINE FIFTEEN and over EIGHTEEN YEARS' standing in Harrisburg Linn county Oregon, and its vicinity to which the following persons will bear witness.

E B MOORE, NATHANIEL BELL,
A L WALLACE G R WARD
Mrs MONTGOMERY JOHN M HOLLOWAY
